

Year 11 Exams 2023

What to expect...

- Your seating plan will be on the Year 11 Google classroom year page the day before.
- You will need to wear your full school uniform.
- You will be required to wait outside prior to your exam and you must enter the exam hall in silence. You must follow all exam expectations which we will go through later.
- If you have an exam you go straight to your exam room not your lesson.
- You will not be allowed off site at lunch from Monday 15th May.
- The whole school will be following the timings of the new school day.
- Attend your usual lessons if you do not have an exam and return to your usual lesson straight after an exam. This will be the arrangement until after May half term.
- For morning exams, if you travel on the bus and this is running late you must wait at the bus stop. If the bus breaks down or is stuck in traffic you must remain on the bus. Do not get off the bus, we will be notified of this and make arrangements.

To do...

- Get your equipment sorted – see Miss Dovey or Miss Hollingworth if you have any problems with this.
- Make sure you know when each exam is and where you need to be for it – See Miss Brown the exams officer if you need a new timetable
- Stick to your revision plan
- Ask your teachers if you have any subject specific questions!
- If you have any general questions or need some support tell Miss Dovey, Miss Hollingworth or your form tutor
- Eat healthily and keep active
- Get enough sleep!
- Make sure you are doing the performance stage in your revision!

Make sure you ask this week if you are unsure about anything!

Good Luck!

Year 11 this is the last push, your time to shine! We believe in you!
